Complete and say aloud: 1. apply ___ a job; 2. agree ___ a classmate; 3. graduate ___ school; 4. depend ___ the job; 5. introduce me ___ a teammate; 6. decide ___ a career; 7. prepare ___ work; 8. learn ___ a mistake.

Repair: I agree to my classmate. → _____

2. Separate the reading questions

觀點、理由、例子及語氣是不同的問題。

Look for	Ask yourself
Viewpoint / position	What is the writer's answer: yes, no or it depends?

Example / experience	What concrete case or experience does the writer describe?
Tone	What attitude comes through the wording? Which words create it?

先按立場分組，再按語氣重新分組；每次移動都指出詞句。

F

Use: The writer's position is ____ because ____. The tone sounds ____; the words "____" suggest ____. A word or phrase can sometimes help show both.

Build a claim that can convince

Debate question: Does school prepare you for the world of work?

4. Make your support do some work

論點、理由、例子及解釋要連得起來。

Part	Model: a qualified yes
Claim	School prepares students for teamwork, although job-specific training is still needed.
Reason	Many jobs depend on communication with other people.
Concrete example	Paul says school football developed his teamwork skills. In a group presentation, classmates also have to explain and coordinate their work.
Link to the claim	These activities practise communication and shared responsibility, which are also needed in many workplaces.
Respond to an objection	Some group tasks are badly organised. Clear roles and feedback can give each student an opportunity for practice.

Paul describes one person's experience. It illustrates a possible benefit; it does not prove that every school task prepares everyone for work. Add a specific experience or a clearly labelled imagined example of your own.

Before starting: agree whether school means education before university or formal education more broadly. Identify the level in your examples.
Round 1: A1 opens (45 seconds), B1 opens (45 seconds), A2 responds (45 seconds), B2 responds (45 seconds). Listeners note the claim and support.
Plan for one minute: improve an example or answer a challenge.
